

DENIED*BY ORDER OF THE COURT
NO SHOWING OF GOOD CAUSE

On March 23, 2020 the Court granted TP Link's Motion to Strike two of Careful Shopper's counterclaims under California's anti-SLAPP statute. (Doc. 82.) In compliance with that Order, on April 20, 2020, TP Link filed its request for attorney's fees incurred in connection with bringing its Motion to Strike. (Doc. 92.) Careful Shopper now seeks leave to exceed the 25-page limit placed on the length of its opposition brief under Local Rule 11-6. Careful Shopper states it requires "30 pages, including approximately 12 footnotes, 6 of which are 10 lines or more" to respond to TP Link's fees motion. (Doc. 93 at 3.) TP Link stipulated to the request as a courtesy. (Id.) Careful Shopper states that there is good cause to exceed the page limit because it must fully respond to each issue raised in TP Link's fees motion. (Id.) The body of that motion (Doc. 92) is twelve pages. The Court is confident in counsel's ability to set forth Careful Shopper's arguments in an opposition brief that complies with the Local Rule's page limit. Careful Shopper's opposition shall not exceed 25 pages. Nor may footnotes be employed to skirt the page limit.
